THE ALBRIGHT ART GALLERY

THE Ninth Annual Exhibition of selected paintings by American artists opened in the Albright Gallery, Buffalo, on May 16th and will continue until August 31st. It comprises one hundred and twenty-six canvases, selected from the past season's current exhibitions, the studios of the artists and from private and public collections.

The collection as a whole is varied and representative. On this and following pages will be found reproductions of some of the more notable of the exhibits included in the catalogue. Through the efforts of Miss Cornelia B. Sage, the director, the Albright Gallery has come to occupy an enviable position among American art museums. Buffalo has a right to regard its possession with pride. The Albright Gallery is invariably in the lead and it is furthermore a center of activity in its own community. The building itself is uncommonly beautiful and appropriate and the exhibitions held therein are without exception important and unusual.
